SCTE Gala Awards Dinner Dance at Drapers' Hall, London
Saturday 23 March 2013

For 2013, the SCTE has found a completely new venue which is somewhat of a hidden "gem" in the City of London. The Worshipful Company of Drapers, founded in 1361, is one of the 108 Livery Companies in the City of London and ranks third in order of precedence. Originally a trade association of wool and cloth merchants, the Drapers' Company is now a charitable, ceremonial and educational institution. Drapers' Hall itself (previously the home of Thomas Cromwell) was bought from King Henry VIII in 1543. It was destroyed by the Great Fire of 1666, but was rebuilt for the second time in 1772.

During the evening, we will have exclusive use of Drapers' Hall which includes some stunning rooms, the most magnificent of which is the Livery Hall where the main Dinner will be held. This is indeed a totally unique venue and an incredibly special place so, please join us for a memorable evening or perhaps even make a weekend of it in London.

The packed schedule for the evening will encompass a Champagne Reception with entertainers, a sumptuous 4-course banquet with wine and liqueurs, a souvenir gift for every attendee, the presentation of the Society Awards, a fun Casino and last, but not least, dancing to our live band "Choice". It has all the hallmarks of being another fantastic SCTE evening and one not to be missed.

Full details of the dinner will be circulated to Members in the next month but bookings are being accepted immediately from Corporate Members and sponsoring companies. Recent SCTE Dinners have been a sell-out almost before they were advertised and we expect a similar response for 2013, so in order to avoid disappointment, tickets are now available at the highly subsidised rate of £75 + VAT per person (for SCTE Members) or £120 + VAT per person (for non-SCTE Members). Tables are round seating 10 or a maximum of 12 guests.

Sponsorship opportunities for the Dinner will include:

Gifts for attendees	£1,000
